Nicole thrives on the combination of creative and technical skills required to compose thoughtful interior spaces. Her decade of diverse experience comprises education, healthcare, corporate, and hospitality design. Regardless of the market segment, she believes every successful project begins with a thorough understanding of the client's needs. Nicole believes trends should inform, not drive design. She enjoys formulating big-picture narratives that influence design details and result in spaces that tell a story. Nicole strives to compose classic, beautiful spaces that promote wellness and evoke a sense of place.
