Interior Design,
Southern Illinois University

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

International Interior Design
Association (IIDA), Member

Nikki is instrumental in crafting innovative interior designs for healthcare, commercial, and hospitality environments. She works in close collaboration with architects, engineers, and builders to seamlessly integrate aesthetics with functionality, ensuring that each space not only looks exceptional but also meets the specific needs of its users. Additionally, Nikki maintains strong relationships with textile and furniture representatives, expertly managing the selection and procurement of high-quality, commercial-grade items—including lighting, furniture, wall finishes, flooring, and plumbing fixtures—to bring her design visions to life.
